BROTHERHOOD FUGITIVES

On August 3, 1972, the Orange County Grand Jury indicted 30 members of the BROTHERHOOD OF ETERNAL LOVE. These individuals were charged with a variety of narcotic violations and conspiracy to violate California State Narcotic Laws.

Shortly thereafter, the Orange County Sheriff's Office issued warrants for 15 of those persons indicted.

On October 2, [redacted], a BROTHERHOOD fugitive, was seized in San Jose, Costa Rica, while attempting to smuggle into the United States a sizeable amount of hash oil. b6 b7C

The oil was packed in the innermost bag of six self-sealing plastic bags which were then placed in a cloth bag bearing the BROTHERHOOD symbol.

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

WANTED

The individuals shown below are active members of the BROTHERHOOD OF ETERNAL LOVE. This is a pseudo-religious organization responsible for the importation and sale of large quantities of hashish and manufacture and distribution of LSD on a worldwide level.

On August 3, 1972 the Orange County Grand Jury indicted these individuals, charging them with a variety of narcotic violations and 182,I,V Penal Code (Conspiracy to Violate California State Narcotic Laws).

Since these fugitives extensively utilize false identification, every effort should be made to notify California Department of Justice of their fingerprint classification as soon as possible, to obtain a positive identification before releasing subject. b6 b7C
